Dear Requester:

This is the final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, originally received by the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) on March 14, 2016, for information pertaining to all emails, memos, incident reports, or arrest records regarding the Donald Trump rally which was to be held March 11, 2016, at the University of Illinois Chicago Pavilion in Chicago, IL, but was cancelled due to security concerns over protesters. Please search records between March 3, 2016 and the date this request is processed.

Enclosed are documents responsive to your request. In an effort to provide you with the greatest degree of access authorized by law, we have considered this material under the FOIA statute, Title 5 U.S.C. § 552. Pursuant to this Act, exemptions have been applied where deemed appropriate. The exemptions cited are marked below.

In addition, approximately 60 page(s) were released, and approximately 0 page(s) were withheld in their entirety. An enclosure to this letter explains the exemptions in more detail.

☒ If this box is checked, deletions were made pursuant to the exemptions indicated below.

The following checked item(s) also apply to your request:

☒ Fees: In the processing of this FOIA request, no fees are being assessed.

☐ Other:

If you deem our decision an adverse determination, you may exercise your appeal rights. Should you wish to file an administrative appeal, your appeal should be made in writing and received within ninety (90) days of the date of this letter, by writing to: Freedom of Information Appeal, Deputy Director, U.S. Secret Service, Communications Center, 245 Murray Lane, S.W., Building T-5, Washington, D.C. 20223. If you choose to file an administrative appeal, please explain the basis of your appeal and reference the case number listed above.

Additionally, you have the right to seek dispute resolution services from the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) which mediates disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Please note that contacting the Secret Service's FOIA Program and/or OGIS is not an alternative to filing an administrative appeal and does not stop the 90-day appeal clock. You may contact OGIS at: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001. You may also reach OGIS via e-mail at ogis@nara.gov, telephone at 202-741-5770/toll free at (877) 684-6448, or facsimile at (202) 741-5769.

If you need any further assistance, or would like to discuss any aspect of your request, please contact FOIA Analyst, Mrs. Corbett or our FOIA Public Liaison Kevin Tyrrell, at (202) 406-6370. Alternatively, you may send an e-mail to foia@usss.dhs.gov.

FOIA/PA File No. 20160673 is assigned to your request. Please refer to this file number in all future communication with this office.

Sincerely,

Kim E. Campbell

☒ FOIA and Privacy Act Exemption List

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

Provisions of the Freedom of Information Act do not apply to matter that are:

- (b) (1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive Order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order;
- (b) (2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices any agency;
- (b) (3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b) (4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b) (5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b) (6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b) (7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the information: (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings; (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication; (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source; (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law; (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b) (8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for regulation or supervision of financial institutions;
- (b) (9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

PRIVACY ACT
SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

The provisions of the Privacy Act do not apply to:

- (d) (5) material compiled in reasonable anticipation of civil action or proceeding;
- (j) (2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) material is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive Order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy;
- (k) (2) material compiled during investigations for law enforcement purposes;
- (k) (3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or other individuals pursuant to section 3056 of Title 18;
- (k) (5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, military service, Federal contracts, or for access to classified information, but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or prior to the September 27, 1975, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence;
- (k) (6) testing or examination material used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in the Federal service the disclosure of which would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process;

Dear (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and Ivanka

First, congratulations for last night's victory

I enjoyed the meeting with (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) very much today

One quick assessment note about the "Anonymous" threat to all Donald Trump online presence as announced in the media

<http://www.abc10.com/news/nation/anonymous-declares-war-on-donald-trump/85674211>

My team's assessment is that the move is launched by an alliance of American far-left and Iranian cyber Units. The assaults on DJT rallies by MoveOn.org in Chicago and nationwide and now the cyber offensive by "Anonymous" may be coordinated. More assessment is coming

Best

TRUMP

MAKE AMERICA GREAT AGAIN!

October 19, 2015

The Honorable Jeh Johnson
Secretary of Homeland Security
Washington, D.C. 20528

Dear Secretary Johnson,

Please consider this letter a formal request from Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. for the authorization of United States Secret Service (USSS) protection under Title 18 U.S.C.' 3056(a)(7) for Mr. Donald J. Trump.

Such USSS protection is imperative because Mr. Trump is:

- A publicly announced candidate;
- The definitive front-runner as shown by virtually all state and national opinion polls;
- Actively taking steps to secure access to the ballot in all states and territories; and anticipate actively campaigning in more than 10 states shortly, and;
- Seeking the nomination of a qualified party.

In light of the extraordinary world-wide attention that Mr. Trump's candidacy has garnered, and the fact that Mr. Trump's events are attended by many thousands of people (with ever increasing crowd sizes), we have a genuine concern not only for Mr. Trump's personal safety, but for the safety of the general public in attendance. Should an incident occur which is directed at Mr. Trump, there is the unfortunate possibility that attendees/bystanders within the crowd, many of whom may be present with their families and young children, could be injured as a result.

It should also be noted that the notorious narco-trafficker known as "El Chapo" has placed a bounty upon Mr. Trump's head, a situation no other candidate in the history of the United States has ever had to campaign under. We are concerned that while he himself may not be capable of fulfilling his threat against Mr. Trump (and regardless of whether the threat has been verified as directly attributable to him), his threat may spur others to take action as they seek to collect on the bounty - once again placing the safety of both the public and Mr. Trump in great jeopardy. We respectfully assert that Mr. Trump's candidacy merits immediate Secret Service protection.

Thank you for your consideration of this request. Please feel free to contact me at (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) or (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) @donaldtrump.com if I can answer any questions or provide additional information.

Sincerely,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

PROTECTIVE INTELLIGENCE ADVANCE AGENT INSTRUCTIONS

PID makes current information on Behavior of Interest Subjects available to the protective details and field offices through the Protective Threat Management System (PTMS). Authorized users, including all special agents, can obtain photo arrays and photo bulletins for Behavior of Interest Subjects (e.g., Special Interest, Managed Risk, Lookouts, etc.). These individuals have exhibited behaviors of interest toward protectees and have histories of action in furtherance of their interest. Users can access PTMS through the USSS Sharepoint Quick Links. Instructions for obtaining photo arrays and bulletins are available on the PTMS Help menu and also on the Protective Intelligence and Assessment Division's Intranet page under the PI Advance header

Protectee threat assessments are also available on the U.S. Secret Service Intranet at the following address:

Situation reports will be mandatory only when there is substantive information to report (e.g., threats, planned demonstrations). When a situation report is warranted, a complete report will be required and should be sent to the appropriate Headquarters offices 24 hours before the visit. See the Protective Intelligence Division Advance Manual, IDAM-12, for guidance on the preparation of situation reports.

When no situation report is warranted, the protective intelligence advance agent will be required to write the intelligence section of the preliminary survey report. The section should include the protective intelligence advance agent's name and contact information.

The protective intelligence advance agent is instructed to contact the Protective Intelligence Operations Center (PIOC), 202-406-5000, prior to and on the day of the visit to request a review of this Division's trip file.

Upon arrival and departure of the protectee, the protective intelligence advance agent should immediately notify the PIOC.

If an incident, demonstration, exclusion or any unusual activity occurs during the visit, the requirement to file a trip return may be fulfilled by telephonically reporting the information to the PIOC within 24 hours of the visit. After that time, a trip return must be submitted via official message to the Protective Intelligence and Assessment Division within 14 days after the visit. A trip return is not required if there are no incidents, demonstrations, exclusions or unusual activities.

CONTIGUOUS DISTRICT INSTRUCTIONS

Contiguous districts are instructed to review their files, including Managed Risk cases, for information that may impact this visit. If any action is taken regarding a subject (e.g., interview, verification of location, surveillance) or any intelligence information is developed pertinent to this trip, please advise PID and CHI via official message prior to the protectee visit. Negative information need not be reported.
